

Congratulations! You've taken the first step and signed-up for The Community Cup. Now it's time to assemble your team and start preparations for event day.

Come to Compete and Eat! Event Catering Provided by Giant Eagle

Competing all day is some serious work and your team is going to build up an appetite! Help fuel them through competition by placing a breakfast and/or lunch order prior to event day and have it delivered directly to your team tent. More information and a menu can be found here.

Show Your Team Pride with Your Uniform!

A requirement is the creation of your team "uniform" – specifically your event t-shirt. Design a t-shirt for your team to wear at the competition and let the creativity flow. The Community Cup event logo must be included on all t-shirt designs. (You can download them here). Our panel of judges will score every team uniform and will announce a winner from each division. There are no points to be won, but prizes will be given to each t-shirt contest winner. You do not need to be participating in any of the 13 activities to show off your company pride! More information and step-by-step instructions can be found here.

Earn Points Off the Field! Charity Challenge Returns to Community Cup

At The Community Cup, we believe that team building and wellness extend beyond event day. That's why we've created the Charity Challenge! Participating teams in The Community Cup have three opportunities to give back to their community while earning points for their team! The Columbus Foundation, Mid-Ohio Foodbank and YMCA of Central Ohio have partnered with us. More information and how to earn points can be found here.

Announcing The Community Cup's Chairman, David Babner

Get ready for even more spirit at this year's Community Cup! We're thrilled to announce David Babner, who directed the 2018 Community Cup 5K Race, as The Community Cup's Chairman this year! Babner is Race Director for the Capital City Half Marathon and founder of M3S Sports, which produces 11 running, walking and multisport events. As The Community Cup's Chairman, Babner will again direct the 5K race and be on site for all events to enhance The Community Cup experience.

Examine the Events One-by-One

No matter your level of skill or athletic ability, The Community Cup offers an event for everyone. The 2019 Community Cup includes 13 events, including five new events, that allow all participants to contribute points, whether you're going to test your swing at wiffle ball home run derby or just offer your time for the one-mile walk. You can read through each event, scoring, rules and schedule here.
